“ We are grateful to have spent a few fun hours Friday night with this wonderful man. What a sweetheart! Truly a kind, gentle, full-of-life human being, taken from this earth way before his time. We will miss you Dan!

“ It was such much fun to be Dan's "wicked stepmother". He was a very special man with a pure heart and special spirit. I treasure the time we spent talking about books, art, music and other serious subjects. You know how crazy fun he was and I loved that about him. But he was very spiritual like his dad. I don't think I can play Apples to Apples for a long time. Monday Dan and I went shopping and he took selfies of us pushing the cart. Little did I know he would leave us a few hours later. I loved him. I am grateful the last thing he heard was his dad holding him and repeating "I love you son, I love you son". Dan knew that and wanted to spend time with Jim before going home. Now he is in his heavenly home with his mother.
