“ I’m his next door neighbor when we were growing up. “Danny” and his brothers would play in the woods with me and my siblings. We built forts and ran back and forth to each other’s homes. As he and I moved up to high school I didn’t stay as close, but I remember him so fondly and am so sad to hear he has passed on. Sending so much love to Jeff, Joey, Angela, and all. Praying you all are lifted up above the sorrow and sadness to peace.

I just want to echo Bonnie words. Danny and the entire Malone family hold an important place in my heart. Playing together as we grew up is something that one never forgets. I loved our baseball games, riding bikes and building forts and all that comes with make believe as small kids. It was a wonderful childhood growing up in bucolic Claridon, Ohio. Sending you all each a great big hug and tons of happy memories.

“ What a great guy!!! He always said hello to me in church. I remember him dealing cards at all the charity functions. I helped him with a roof that he did for free for a family that didn't have much money. I never seen a guy work so hard. He always thought of others before himself. He will be missed. I'm sure if Jesus need some work done, Dan will be the first one to volunteer.
