

David J. Agnich

August 27, 1949 - February 5, 2024

David J. Agnich, a proud Army veteran and ironworker, passed away at his home in Willoughby on February 5, 2024, at the age of 74. He was born on August 27, 1949, in Cleveland, to the late Rudolph and Victoria Agnich.

His love for his grandkids shone brightly, he loved to visit them and shower them with the latest infomercial toys. His joy was found in the smiles and laughter of Henry and Violet and he always kept his pockets full of treats for the dogs in the house.

He is now pain free, may he rest in peace.

Survived by his children, Melanie (Michael) Ross and Matthew Agnich, along with his beloved grandchildren, Henry and Violet Ross.

Preceding David in death are his son, Michael Agnich and brother, Rudy Agnich Jr.

A private service was held.

Arrangements were entrusted to the compassionate care of the Brunner Sanden Deitrick Funeral Home and Cremation Center, located at 8466 Mentor Ave., Mentor, Ohio 44060.

“ To Matt, Melanie, and grandkids I am so sorry for the loss of your Dad and Grandpa. I wish you all comfort and peace.

How grateful I am to have had Dave as my neighbor and friend. Loved our outdoor discussions and our texts. Dave was kind, generous of heart, and respectful.

Dave I know you are watching over us from above as we fondly and lovingly think of you.

“ My sincerest condolences to Matt and Melanie and her family on their loss of dad and grandpa. Dave is where he wanted to be, reunited with Mike. He is now with him and all the dogs who loved him, mine included. And finally pain free! Will miss talking to him about the Browns and sharing memories about Motts. Remember when I'd come home from work and turned the corner to see his and John's cars parked on 254th St. the three of them weren't working and I wasn't too happy to see them! They tried to be gone before I came home but sometimes missed their mark. Well, all three of them are together again now too. Still waiting for the Browns to get to the Super Bowl!

“ Dave was such a nice, kind hearted neighbor to live by in Willoughby. He always took the time to talk when seen by neighbors on the street. I will miss him and I pray he is now resting in peace under the Lord's care. I also pray for Dave's family for healing during this difficult time. Thanks Dave for some good conversation during the summer months.
