

Deborah J. Wierzbowski

May 22, 1967 - August 8, 2020

Deborah J. Wierzbowski, 53, of Columbia, South Carolina, died August 8, 2020. She was born May 22, 1967, in Euclid, Ohio.

Deborah graduated from Edinburgh University in Pennsylvania with a degree in Education, which was only a small part of her passion for continuous learning. Early in her career, she focused on supporting student success while teaching Math and Science in Anderson, South Carolina, and Jackson, Tennessee. Later she devoted her time to home schooling one of her children, who she helped overcome great adversity to graduate with honors.

She was a wonderful, dedicated mother and wife of 31 years. Deborah loved her family so much, which was evident in how she devoted her life to supporting her children in all they did. She loved children so much that she and her husband adopted two children at the same time as she was expecting.

Survivors include her husband, Raymond Wierzbowski; children, Joshua, Ryan, Alexandra, and Katelyn; mother, Grace Rose; and her sisters, Carol (John) Winter, Ginny (Barry) Royko.

She was preceded in death by her father, Howard Rose.

The family held a private ceremony on Sunday, August 16, 2020 at the Brunner Sanden Deitrick Funeral Home & Cremation Center, 8466 Mentor Ave., Mentor, OH 44060.

Please offer condolences at www.brunners.com.

Tribute Wall

LU

“ We wish to offer our very deepest sympathy to Raymond and the family of Deborah Wierzbowski. We are keeping Deborah and the family in our prayers now and in the days and weeks to come. Let the love of family and friends surround you like a blanket and bring you peace.

"What we have once enjoyed deeply we can never lose. All that we love deeply becomes a part of us." (Helen Keller)

Much love, Pete and Linda Ugolini

Linda Ugolini - August 16, 2020 at 11:34 AM