“ The first time I met Debbie was at a northern Ohio youth camp the very next year we were at camp meeting and we were in line for our annual ladies banquet, we were just chatting away and all of a sudden she looked at me and said I don't feel so good and she proceeded to pass out right in my arms! I lowered her to the floor the best I could and she came to right away of course, I looked at her and I whispered in her ear Debbie are you pregnant by any chance? She whispered back to me yes but don't tell anybody! Well that baby girl she was pregnant with ended up being Crystal and she grew up to be my daughters best friend ! I'm gonna miss you Debbie much love hugs and kisses to the family!

“ Debbie I can not thank you enough for always checking in on me, you having been a saving Grace for me and may not have even known on some very tough days the past 10 months. Even though you were fighting your own battle you always had such a caring heart. Thank you for welcoming me into your home all these years. I will make sure I watch over the girls and Gary. Until we meet again
