“ I graduated from Wickliffe High School in 1989 and was taught and coached by Mr. Gladrow. As a woman, looking back on the young 13-year old girl who had him in wood shop when the majority of girls were in Home Ec, my heart fills with gratitude for his enthusiasm in teaching me to make a key holder for my wall. He was a wonderful teacher who was always kind, patient with us in the classroom and on the field (even when his frustration was obvious). He took the coaching job and was learning on his feet. I remember admiring how he jumped into it. Bless his family. I'm sorry for your loss and hope you find comfort in the many, many lives he touched.

“ Dear Becky, I just saw this tonight. I am so sorry to hear about Del. You both were an important part of GRYC and friend to so many. Take care.
