Tribute Wall

“ Dennis and I (Ray Terry) got to know each other in High School. Dennis was going to Mentor and myself North. We lived in the same apartments in mentor, the Clairidge house by the Mall. We became best of friends and had a group of guys we always hung out with. His mom had a small restaurant in mentor and both worked there for a short time. I even moved down to Miami with Dennis and his parents for about 6 months. They remained in Miami but I got home sick and moved back to Ohio. We lost touch after that, but years later I have made attempts to reconnect. Never did find him and so sorry to hear about his passing. I remember his sister Susie, as she was engaged and getting married at that time. Even though our lives went separate ways those memories have always been there, Dennis was an awesome friend and wish I could have found him. Prayers to the family and gods speed to Dennis...Ray Terry
