“ Diane was just a teenager when I first met her in 1969 and Jim and I were married November 1970. We watched her grow into a beautiful young lady and just a lovely person. We spent many family gatherings together with her and Gail, and her Mom and Dad, Dorothy and Howard Youngblood. My favorite memories of her are bowling with her and her Mom. They were both very competitive good bowlers. I will always remember her smile and laughter and the good times together. She was a wonderful lady gone way too soon! My heart goes out to you in your loss. I know she is up there in heaven with my Dear husband Jim and we shall see them again someday.

“Diane was one of my oldest friends and classmates. I have many fond memories of our shared childhood and school years from St. Mary Magdalene through Notre Dame Academy. We had sleep overs and spent a lot of time together, with Gail playing a lot of games like "LIFE" which I seem to recall was our favorite. We both were Trekkies, and fans of Dark Shadows. I remember how excited she was when she bought Leonard Nimoy's record. LOL... I thought his singing sucked. She took that personally.

When I got my convertible Ford LTD in senior year she would sometimes go with me to drive to Notre Dame. That is until I had a laughing fit doing donuts in the snowy parking lot. Diane was not amused. She went back to riding on the bus.

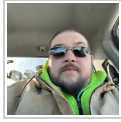

During our senior retreat, we both talked about entering the convent. I didn't. Not surprisingly, the nuns didn't really think I would be a good fit. LOL

Diane was a better person than me. She was very devout in her Catholic beliefs so she entered for about 2 years. I left for college but we kept in touch. I quit college for a time and went to work for New York Life in the "Check-O-Matic" department in the age of punch card computing. Diane left the convent and I got her a job at New York Life. Long story short, I left NYL to go back to college and she stayed. We both went on with our lives and I didn't stay Cleveland so our lives didn't intersect so much. Growing families makes it hard to keep in touch. But we did on occasions like Christmases. It was unfortunate that she did not make it to our class reunions. I am sorry I didn't get to see her before she was hit with the challenge of this cancer. But I will always have fond memories of her, the Bayridge home where I spent so much time, the Youngblood family, including sister Gail and her hoot of grandfather, grandma and father and her lovely classy mom.

Aw, Diane, I'm gonna miss ya girlfriend. But your memory will always be with me in my heart until the day I die. I am so sorry you went through so much.

My deepest sympathy to her family, and also love to sister Gail.

This is a beautifully written! I can just see the look on Diane's face while doing those doughnuts!😭 I used to do the same thing in the Marc's parking lot when I'd take her to work in the early morning before they opened and no cars she would have a fit I will never forget that mom glare she gave me, I'm miss her so much!!!😭😭 she still would get in the car with me though I know she knew I Knew what I was doing, I use to street race on Saturday nights out in Hartsgrove when I was 19... Diane was an amazing woman! She would have been a saint had it not been for that potty mouth lol, you know if she dropped an F bomb she was really mad lol... thank you for sharing this, it just adds to all the stories I have of her and heard “ Diane was a cornerstone of and co leader of our girl scout troop. She was a steadfast leader for the girls for 12 years. I know those young women benefited from her dedication. She made a difference in their lives and was a wonderful mom.
