

Dolores E. Holliday

June 12, 1930 - December 17, 2021

Dolores E. Holliday, age 91, of Cleveland, passed away Friday December 17, 2021 at The Preserve Senior Living at Mentor Ridge, Mentor, OH. She was born June 12, 1930 in Cleveland, OH.

Miss Holliday was a retired Benefits Coordinator at the Corporate Headquarters of Sherwin Williams where she retired after 43 years. In retirement, she went on to volunteer at Fairview Hospital for over 25 years. She was a member of West Park United Church of Christ, serving on many boards and volunteering for many activities. During election years, she volunteered at the voting polls in Cuyahoga County.

Dolores was an active bowler into her eighties. She loved Kamm's Corners where she lived for over 80 years. She loved to travel, especially to Hawaii, Alaska, Australia, New Zealand, Great Britain, Italy and several other locations in Europe. Dolores was a very special aunt to Lee, Anne, Gaye and Dean. She would spend the holidays with them in New England while they were young. In later years she visited Lee and Mary in Tennessee. Dolores was a collector of paperweights and had quite an extensive collection that she was very proud of.

Survivors include her nieces and nephews, Lee (Mary) Holliday, Anne (Robert Durocher) Holliday, Gaye (Michael) Kopan and Dean (Tara) Holliday; and many great-nieces and nephews.

Preceding Dolores in death are her parents, Arthur and Minetta Holliday and her brother, Arthur Owen Holliday.

“ I missed having lunch with her after her move and then COVID messed up any visits we could have. We did talk on the phone some times, but that really couldn't take the place of our 3 hour lunches. Love to hear about the "stuff" she found on her "house sale " trips.

She was a great friend and will be missed.
