“ Deepest condolences to the family. Always looked forward to uncle Ray and family coming to visit us in west Tennessee way back in the 60's. So much fun, time just slipped away as we got older. Never realized there was only 6 days difference in our ages. Prayers and thoughts

“ I am sadden to hear that Donnie has passed. My condolences to the Eason family on your loss. I was glad to hear at the time of his passing his children and family were there with him and he passed at his home.

My memories of Donnie were from the time that the family lived on the farm in Middlefield Oh in 1956. Where I had visited from time to time.

Even through this happen more 60 years ago, it remains a bright spot in my childhood.

Remembering, chasing chickens , milking cows riding bikes, baling hay, and riding on the tractor. It was a wonderful time in my life.

My regret is I did not stay in touch over the years.

Rest in Peace Donnie and thank you again for the childhood memories.
