“ Donna and I have been friends since high school. Smiles and laughter was always present when she was around. Always a good time! Never forget Vegas with her, Kevin, and Terry. Best time ever! She will be greatly missed but never forgotten.

“ Donna was an amazing woman. A devoted wife, mother, and friend. This world is a sadder place without her. I was blessed to know her for many years, I was her son's babysitter and she became one of my dearest friends. Even our moms were the best of friends. She was wonderful to me. My husband might have starved in the early days of our marriage had she not taught me how to cook. She had a wonderful sense of humor and a loving and compassionate outlook on life. She will be forever missed and never forgotten.

“ I just met Donna a few months ago and the moment I met her I felt I knew her all my life. She loved her husband, family and her precious pups. She welcomed me in her home and trusted me to watch the pups. She pointed out where, in the trees, the eagles nested and how the deer came to visit and, last but not least, how her husband had "his" chair in the family room! Kris Evans

“ Donnie, as I always called her was always full of life and one who could always mak you laugh. I treasure the memories of her. She was the best Cousin one could ever ask for. She loved her grandson more than life itself as any grandma would do. She will be greatly missed by those who loved her. Fly high, my cousin. You now have the wings to do so! I love you dearly❤️❤️❤️

Donna and I worked together at The Holden Arboretum years ago. She was full of life and love and laughter. Parties was always more fun with her. I'm so happy I got to rendezvous with her last summer for a lovely dinner in Chardon. She will be missed but not forgotten. Linda McMahon. Nov 10
