“ Donna Mae was such a gracious and lovely lady. She was the kind of person who welcomed anyone into her home. For me, marrying into such a large and tightknit extended family in a new state with no friends or relations, no shared experiences or common culture - one would expect to feel like an outsider but Donna Mae made a point of showing me a welcoming smile and offering kind words. She always helped me feel welcome and made the event easier whenever she was around. She was a great field commander, organizing and getting so much done. She will be missed by everyone who knew her.
