“ Many memories of this great and loving woman. I remember her letting me spend part of a summer with her when I was fourteen...she taught me how to make real pudding (I think the constant stirring on the stove kept me out of mischief!). I could always talk to her. And the fact that she could play cool songs on the organ was the icing on the cake! All my love and prayers for her and for the family who mourns this loss. I picture her in heaven with my mom...no more pain or tears there.
