“ Kathy, Pete, Paul & Mary Grace,

I always enjoyed coming to your house. I remember being there for one of your parent's anniversary parties. You had a lovely home. Your mom and dad were really good folks. And it's easy to see where you all got your good looks and good natures. I remember coming one Good Friday, and you guys were resting, honoring those hours when Christ would have been suffering on the cross for all us! Keep the Faith! I know your parents stood up for my parents when they got married. They were good role models. With my mom and dad (Aunt Sue and Uncle Bernie) gone now, it makes the memories that much more special coming to Grandma's and seeing everyone. I hate that we all drifted apart since Grandma Lagania's passing. She was a good soul and certainly passed that trait down to much of the Lagania clan. I hope everyone is doing well and that you all get a chance to read this. Love to all. Miss you much!
