“ Doug was my confirmation mentor through Hope Ridge. He was extremely thoughtful and a great listener; I took a lot away from the time I spent with him. Years after confirmation when I'd see him, he was always upbeat and asking me questions about how I was doing, despite what he was going through. I appreciate everything he did for me and he will be missed. -Alex Toth

Doug was such a good man. Even when he had to endure many difficulties, I never heard him complain. He always shared a smile and soldiered on. He was proud of his family and enjoyed helping others. I'm glad to have known him these past 20+ years.

We had been neighbors and friends with Doug for almost 30 years. We always were met with a smile and a friendly hello. Doug was a very gentle and caring man who always made you feel comfortable in his presence. He was certainly a brave man who confronted his health issues without complaint. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

We will miss Doug a lot as life goes on. Doug and Gail have been among our very best friends since we first met as neighbors in Dalton Mass. so many years ago. Doug always had a great sense of humor - even in later life when health issues plagued him. A twinkle in his eye, a smile, and a cheerful greeting were his trademarks. In the early years Doug and Gail taught our kids how to ride bikes and swim, and fun times raising sons at Indian Guides. Doug and Gail were there with us at weddings, birthdays, and, more recently, during my (Andy) recoveries from multiple surgeries at the Cleveland Clinic (how fortunate we were that they moved near to Cleveland!). Life goes by so quickly. I was our turn a few months ago to visit Doug at the Clinic. It was to be our last visit. He was not feeling well, but There was still the twinkle in his eye.... Throughout, Doug was always kind and sincere. A genuine friend. We miss you, Doug, - until we meet you again.

With Love and sympathy to Gail, Andy and Matthew, and families, Andy and Meg Plumer, Dalton, Mass.
