

Douglas "Doug" Orr

April 16, 1951 - May 2, 2025

Douglas "Doug" Orr, age 74, of Chardon, passed away Friday, May 2, 2025 at Mapleview Country Villa, Chardon Ohio. He was born April 16, 1951 in Boise, Idaho.

He was famous throughout the neighborhood for taking long walks – several times a day! He loved soup with a toasted sandwich, a hot cup of tea, and a good pair of slippers. He was a sucker for an old western movie and running errands for the chance of picking up candy at the gas station. When asked, "Would you like some (food)?" his answer was always an emphatic "Yes!". With his great nieces and nephews, he was a willing participant in playing pool and air hockey.

Most of all, his family remembers his sweet nature and great sense of humor – he always had a bright smile, an honest laugh, and loved a good joke.

Doug was a longtime volunteer at the St. Gabriel Food Bank and enjoyed his time serving and meeting people.

Survivors include his sister: Pamela O. Hazard; nieces & nephews: Brett (Melissa) Hazard, Kathleen (Corey) Lange, Greg (Jodi) Hazard and Kerry (Stephen) Flynn; great nieces & nephews: Zach, Mia, Nate, Alex, Charlie, Owen and Casey.

Preceding Doug in death are his parents: Frederic and June Orr, sister: Kathleen Orr and brother in law: David J. Hazard.

A service celebrating Doug's life will be held on Monday, May 12, 2025 at 6:30 p.m. at St. Gabriel Church, 9925 Johnnycake Ridge Rd., Concord Township, OH 44060.

Private inurnment will take place in All Souls Cemetery, Chardon Ohio.
