

Dr. Herman "Herm" P. Wolfe

May 20, 1935 - November 18, 2025

Dr. Herman "Herm" P. Wolfe passed peacefully on November 18, 2025, with his wife of 62 years by his side.

Herm graduated from Copley High School and went on to earn two degrees from The Ohio State University: a degree in Agriculture (1957) and his Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (1965).

He proudly served in the United States Army in Korea from 1957–1959. After completing his veterinary degree, Herm moved with his family to Mentor, Ohio, where he began what became a lifelong and deeply fulfilling career as a veterinarian. He devoted more than five decades to Lake Animal Hospital, caring for countless animals and serving generations of families. His work was not just a profession - it was a calling he cherished every day until his retirement in 2020.

Herm married his wife, Carolyn, in 1963. Together they welcomed two sons, Brian (LaVonne) and Mark (Lisa). He was the proud grandfather of five granddaughters: Alexis (Cole Palmer), Brianna, Abby, Allison, and Rachel; and six great-grandchildren: Adelynn, Crew, Crosby, DJ, Campbell, and Kenadi.

He was preceded in death by his brothers, Benard and William, and his sisters, Grace, Annie, and Rita.

Family and friends will be received from 10:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m., Monday, December 1, 2025 at St. Gabriel Catholic Church, 9925 Johnnycake Ridge Rd., Concord, Ohio 44060. A memorial Mass to conclude the gathering will begin at 11:00 a.m., at the church.
