“ Over the last 50 years we always enjoyed hearing Tom elaborate on his many travels around the world. Tom's wonderful, dry sense of humor had us laughing for many hours. We were fortunate that our two families grew up together and our children had great times playing many sports and enjoying the outdoors with the Lowery's. We always enjoyed visiting with Tom and Joan and laughing about the 'good old days'. We know Tom will keep the Angels laughing as he spins his many stories. We miss him and will always cherish the memory of our good times with Lowery Family.

God Bless Tom, Joan, and their family,

“ Tom and I spent numerous hours raising our children in the 60's when they were first born. I'll always remember the dinners with Joan and the kids back then and will always have a special place in my heart for Tom. May his soul rest in a very special place with God in heaven.
