

Edith Ann Clark

March 7, 2013

Edith "Ann" Clark (nee Doolittle), age 84, of Mentor, formerly of Bedford and Highland Hts., died March 7, 2013. Mrs. Clark retired from F.M. Global Property Insurance, in 1995. A founding member of Highland Sixth Presbyterian Church in Highland Hts., she served as a deacon, an elder, a Stephen minister, moderator of Tuesday's Together women's group, and more. She had been a member of the Tres Dias retreat ministry, ushered at Playhouse Square, loved music and was an avid Cleveland Browns fan. Ann enjoyed bowling and was an excellent ballroom dancer, watching "Dancing with the Stars" when she could no longer do so.

Beloved mother of Cindy (Bill) Harsch, Steve Clark and Patty (Tom) Cvelbar; grandmother of Erin (Chris) Mayle, Jenna (Geoff) Dougher-Greenaway and Jesse Cvelbar; great-grandmother of Jacob and Allie Dougher; sister of Dorothy (John) Collins and Clarence Doolittle, Jr. She also leaves several nieces and nephews. Preceded in death by former husband, Robert Clark.

A memorial service will be held 2pm March 30, 2013 at Highland 6th Presbyterian Church, 5632 Wilson Mills Rd., Highland Hts., OH 44143, where the family will receive friends following the service for fellowship and refreshments. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions be made to Highland 6th Church Memorial Fund or charity of your choice .

Arrangements entrusted to Brunner Sanden Deitrick Funeral Home & Cremation Center, Mentor.
