“ My playmate, big sister, aunt and mom. She was so much and more! I will always remember her as being cheerful, spunky and beautiful. She was always young at heart. I will miss her cheesy smile, the sparkle in her eyes and her perfumed hugs. She also had her own walk and stance with a one-sided double hip bounce when she was cocked and ready ... attitude & swag she was some kind of tough cookie! May her shadow glimmer as she did so we know where to blow our kisses for I owe her many! ”

“ I was so glad to once again embrace Edie at Jason Jr.'s 1st birthday party. Edie was a very kind and gentle soul that I had the pleasure of knowing in our younger years. I will never forget her joy and inquisitive spirit in her faith in Jesus Christ. Life's journey is so difficult with ebbs and flows but my greatest memory and joy is that we were sisters in Christ and now I see her rejoicing in heaven - free and whole and at peace. My sympathies to the entire family at her loss and I pray this memory would help all who loved Edie. I pray that you can grieve with hope of a better place because of a decision Edie made many years ago. Bless you all and I also pray God gives everyone a peace and grace and comfort during this difficult season. Love you Jason, Matt and Angie! (Aunt Jackie)

“ Edie will be missed, her kindness and gentleness was a gift to those who knew her. It is so hard to have one we love so much to become a memory but those memories will be the very things that keep her alive in our hearts. Bless you Jayson and Matt and Angie in the loss of your precious mom. Praying for you and all the family in the loss of one who loved and was loved much by so many. Hugs and Love
