

Edward S. "Eddie" Gorman

April 9, 1963 - November 2, 2013

Edward S. "Eddie" Gorman, 50, of Willoughby Hills, passed away Saturday, Nov. 2, 2013, at home surrounded by his family after a courageous two-year battle with cancer.

Born April 9, 1963, in Willoughby, Ed was a master plumber and owner of Gorman Plumbing, and a member of the Plumbers Union Local 55. He willingly donated his time and plumbing expertise to so many over the years.

Ed was a graduate of Willoughby South High School and attended Kent State University. Ed was a lifelong member of Immaculate Conception Church. He was a Cleveland sports enthusiast, and an avid golfer, fisherman, skier and outdoorsman. He enjoyed making silver and iron art with his wife, loved hiking by the river with his children and enjoyed cooking for his family. He especially cherished the time with his kids, and had numerous close friends from all walks of life throughout the country. His engaging personality and loyal friendship will be missed by all.

Survivors include his loving wife of 14 years, companion and best friend of almost 30 years, Marney (nee Monahan) Gorman; precious children, Lucy and Quinn Gorman; loving parents, Hugh and Cecelia Gorman; dear siblings, Kathy (Andy) Sparks, John (Jennifer) Gorman, Anne (Richard) Johns, Mary Jane Kirbus, Nancy Jean Gorman, Barbara (Jim) Seitz and Cece (Jerry)

Kysela; sister-in-law, Angie Gorman; and many fun-loving nieces and nephews. Ed was preceded in death by his brother, Chris Gorman; and niece, Brynn Monahan.

A celebration of Ed's life will be from 3 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at Brunner Sanden Deitrick Funeral Home and Cremation Center, 8466 Mentor Ave., Mentor.

Memorial Mass will be 11 a.m. Thursday November 7, 2013 at Immaculate Conception Church, 37932 Euclid Ave., Willoughby. Please meet at the church.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Lucy and Quinn Gorman Education Trust, c/o Jerry Kysela, 1660 West 2nd St., Suite 650, Cleveland, OH 44113.

Inurnment will be at All Souls Cemetery in Chardon Township.
