“ Dearest Debbie, Stacy, Dale, Dennis and all of your families,

I remember how beautiful and "dressed to the nines" Aunt Eleanor was when Uncle Johnny and all of you would visit Baba's house on Nash Avenue in Monessen, PA.

She was an elegant lady. I wanted to dress just like she dressed! My husband remembers your mother because he was your Grandmother Slavik's paperboy! He liked her a lot because she was nice and gave him big tips! Also, his parents used to visit your mom's home since they lived on Rosecrest Avenue behind your Mom's home and were friend with Grandma Slavik. We both have many fond memories of your mother and dad and I, of all of you playing together.

Our heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your beloved mother.
