“ Eleanore was a beautiful soul; she accepted me as part of her family with open arms. each day coming home from work I would pass by her house and she would be at the window waiting for me to wave to each other. I loved her and I will truly miss her.

“ Aunt Eleanor was always a sweetheart. I've never seen her mad or upset. She always welcomed us into her home graciously. We use to go there during the summer and swim all day. We use to have great times at family reunions, eating, playing ball, and just sitting around talking. RIP with uncle Mel. Much love and prayers for my mom, Sherry , and Laurie. Her grandkids and great grandkids.
