“ How do you say goodbye to someone who has been such a big part of your life for almost 50 years? Elinore was my mother-in-law, and both my husband and I miss her terribly! Always smiling, and with such a positive outlook on life, people loved to be around her. She was kind, generous, and a wonderful grandmother to our son Nicholas! We miss her and love her dearly and hope that someday we will be reunited with her when it's our turn to leave this earth. Love you Mom! Bill, Linda and Nick

“ Rebecca and I always sought out Elinore and Rudy at family functions, mostly banquets. Elinore was a delight to talk to at the banquet tables. I celebrated her life at a restaurant she liked In Mayfield Hwights: Arabbiaata's on Mayfield Road. I met Liz from Phoenix AZ at the restaurant. Elinore is missed and will be remembered fondly.

“ I was always fond of Elinore, my cousin. She was always happy and great to be with. She had the most awesome Christmas dinners and Rudy made the best sauerkraut. I cherish the memories.
