“ I loved going into Tractor Supply and waiting for others to check out, so I had time to chat with her. I called her The Turquoise Queen. Brad and I are keeping family and friends in our thoughts and sincere prayers. If any of you need to talk. Please reach out. She was loved and will be missed greatly. She now has her angel wings. God Bless and Lord please put a hedge of protection around all Beth's loved ones.
In Jesus Mighty name. Amen!

“ To the family of our sweet friend Beth!
Our deepest condolences to all of you. We worked with Beth for many years at Morton Salt , became outside friends . We just seen her in June , I just talked to her 2 weeks ago ... I'm heartbroken!!!!
The memories we shared will remain close to my heart always.
Heaven has definitely gained another beautiful angel !!!!! Gone way too soon . Until we meet again!. We will miss you.
R.I.P. We love you Beth!

“ I met Beth years ago when my students began working at Tractor Supply. Every single week Beth greeted us with a sweet smile and hello. She worked alongside my students with kindness and support. We loved talking about our animals and our adventures. She will be deeply missed by so, so may. RIP sweet Beth!
