

Emma Marie McCabe

September 16, 1926 - May 20, 2018

Emma Marie McCabe, age 91 of Mentor, died Sunday, May 20, 2018, at home surrounded by her loving family. She was born at home on September 16, 1926, in Mentor, OH.

Mrs. McCabe was a retired banker for National City Bank.

Emma who was known to many as Marie was a proud graduate of Villa-Angela, School for Girls in Euclid, Ohio. She had multiple lifetime school friends. She worked for multiple banks over the years as the name changed from St. Clair Savings to Broadview Savings and lastly National City Bank. She was known as the really, helpful lady at the bank and her specialty was vulnerable seniors who often relied on her expertise. After retirement, she was all about her growing family, volunteering for St. Mary's Catholic Church of Mentor in their bereavement and Eucharistic ministries. She loved all things Christmas and the Hallmark movie channel even during the heat of July. She was a die-hard Cleveland Indians fan.

Survivors include her children: James J. (Toni) McCabe, William R. McCabe, Colleen (Ronald) Glasscock, Bro. Patrick McCabe, Eileen McCabe, 7 grandchildren: Jason (Kim) McCabe, Shane (Kimberly) McCabe, Amy McCormick, Tim (Emily) McCabe, Jeff (Katie) McCabe, Kelly McCabe, Kimmie (Ricky) Ford, 14 Great Grandchildren: Nick, Bianka, Brianna, Jadon, Kamyryn,

Matthew, Keegan, Shayla, Maili, Bella, Caden & Madison, Each adopted in love, her extended family includes: Scott C. Hare, Sr. Patricia Raelene Peters, Conni Hinkle-Stefanchik (Paul)

“ Deepest sympathies to the entire McCabe family. Although we never met, she was always highly spoken of, loved and always positive in her FB posts. She is in God's arms, safe and happy knowing that her family loved her. RIP. She is your guardian Angel and will live on in your hearts. Prayers to you all.

*Marie and Jim were amongst my favorite people.
Marie baked the meanest apple pie this side of the Mississippi.
Jim and I emptied ashtrays together many years ago.
They will not be forgotten!*
