“ My name is Margaret Graves. I am Beth Moore's Mom from New York. Eric was one of the first people we met when we visited Beth. From the first time we met him, he always came out to say hello to us. We had many great conversations and laughs with Eric, and I will never forget him. Next door won't be the same without Eric. My sympathies go out to his family.

“ Eric was the neighbor of my sister, Beth Moore. He was a wonderful and charming man, and I will miss him greatly. He always had a welcoming hug when I visited Boston Heights from New York. I will never forget his warm smile and how hard he worked. Rest in peace, Eric. My sincere sympathy goes out to his family. Love, Amy Graves of Gloversville, NY

“ We just learned of Eric's passing. We are so very sorry for your loss. Eric was our neighbor and friend. We had many long conversations about things we all had in common. He was helpful whenever we asked him for help and always kind. Sometimes we'd sit outside and look at the stars when there were special events in space going on. He asked for a special telescope as a gift so he could see "events" more clearly. Sometimes he'd leave messages for us about them. He always told us when he would put down fertilizer on his lawn so we could be sure to keep our dog off of it for a while. He was so considerate to us always. . . a super neighbor. He always worked so hard and was so very smart. There are so many wonderful ways to remember him. We are stunned that he is gone. We will miss him dearly. Please accept our deepest sympathies.
