“ I was truly sorry to hear this news. I knew Eric during the mid-80's and haven't seen him in over 20 years, however, he made an large impact on my life.

Even as a young man, he was always a gentleman, kind, sincere, the type of person that made you feel better just knowing and being around him.

Please accept my sincerest condolences on such a great loss to your family.

“ My dearest thanks for all that Eric has done for his family, community and everyone he has touched. He will truly be dearly missed. Just to show his love and compassion he had, I had lost my wife and my world was completely shattered. I had no children so my whole world was Amy. Knowing that I needed that void filled he brought me into his life and introduced me to his super family. Each and everyone of you are absolutely enjoyable to be around with and add that extra spark and enjoyment of life that is needed. Eric will be so so dearly missed.... Thanks for everything and Love each and everyone of you !!! God Bless! Greg McCartney

“ I believe I met Eric around 1995 when he was an electrician for the lasers in Bay 10 & 11 at Lincoln Electric(Euclid). I'm going to be honest and tell you that most of the time I didn't care how long it took Eric to fix the machines because he always had something interesting to share. Of all the interesting stories that Eric shared with me, I believe one sums up what kind of person he was. He told me that he and his siblings moved back in with his father for the last several months of his life to be with him before he passed away. He was a stand-up guy that will be missed.

“ I worked with Eric for nearly 20 years - he was a great guy. Very smart and always helpful. He helped me out a lot over the years. He always had a kind word and was fun to talk to. Eric really loved his family and always talked about Logan and Dylan - he loved his sons very much. That's probably the one thing about Eric that everyone knew - his sons were the biggest part of his life. When ever Eric talked about his boys his face lit up. I'll miss Eric and the talks we used to have. Eric always made the day a little better whenever he was around.

“ Please know my most heartfelt sympathies go out to you Anita, and the entire Feldkamp family.

Eric was such a wonderful man, who truly knew the most important things in life are family and friends. His bright smile and quick wit were infectious. I know one thing for sure- God is going to have his hands full with Eric and Tony together again.

I coached against Eric for years in Mentor Little League. Last year our boys Matt and Dylan were on the same team for the first time. I spent so much time with him during the games, sitting behind home plate, "arguing" about how to score baseball games.....I will miss him as a friend I made.... He was a great dad to the boys. My condolences to Anita, Logan and Dylan and the rest of the family on your loss.
