“ Evey and I have known each other for many years. We worked together in the Sales Dept. at The Ohio Rubber Co.

In our single days we spent many good times together. Then I was in Evey's wedding to Fred and, of course, our lives changed.

After many years we came together again and it was as though we had never parted. I was happy to learn she had a big robust family.

I was shocked to see Evey's name in the obituaries. She was such an energetic person with a vibrant personality.

Because of the weather I was unable to attend services but like you, I will miss her very much.

*Sincerely,
Marilyn Moore Pastor*

“ My Aunt Evelyn had a special charisma that made you want to be with her. I loved her easy laugh, her open nature, her capacity to give. A special memory is from 13 August 1955, when Evelyn married Fred Iannini. I was thrilled to be her flower girl. My aunt looked like beautiful fairy princess.
