“ Evelyn's good-natured diligence left a big impression on me as a teenager. I remember her bundled up, scraping windshields, and laughing as she helped out at the gas station. Another time she was rushing around, getting ready to go to work, spraying her blonde pony tail with hairspray, and she looked at Linda and I and sprayed some up her dress uniform just to be silly, and laughed as we did! (The exact laugh comes out of Linda to this day). Times were hard, but she always managed to find humor in the mundane of life. Your family is in our prayers, and we are sorry for your loss of a fine lady.

“ Evelyn was such a special, creative woman. I marveled at the crafts she made and her memory was so sharp. She was prayerful and reflective and it was a joy getting to know her. She loved her family and extended family so much. It it a tribute to each family member how she remained at home where she was most comfortable until the very end. Bless you all as you remember your own special memories. Sherri
