“ Dear Wentling Family - We just recently saw Evie's obituary in the newspaper and wanted to send along our condolences. Ed met Evie and Charlie through the walking program in Painesville. He greatly enjoyed them and later I got to know them as well. We hope your wonderful memories will help you through this sad time.

Sincerely,

“ Nancy, Jean, Dale and extended Wentling family,

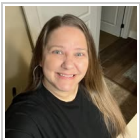

Many years ago, my husband and I bought a house on Nye Road next door to Chuck and Evie. What a great neighborhood to move into! My husband and I were expecting our second child and the friendships and love quickly developed and lasted until the deaths of Chuck and Evie, and continue to this day with Jean and Nancy. We shared countless dinners, parties, drinks, holidays and laughter together. Such warm, rich and loving memories.

For years we took turns setting off early morning firecrackers outside our bedrooms on the 4th of July! Evie taught me many life-lessons and I considered our relationship a blessing in my life. Moving from that neighborhood when we outgrew our bungalow was extremely difficult - Chuck and Evie had become a second set of parents to us.

Thanks for your love, nurture, guidance, lessons and laughter - our lives were deeply enriched by your presence. Nancy & Jean, please stay in touch. I will love each of you for the rest of our days.

“ I will never forget having your parents dancing at my wedding as one of the couples that had been married 50 years. I always loved coming to visit them and having a blast all the time. Sorry I couldn't make the trip this time. Family has been in my prayers.

“ I'm so sorry I can't be there today. I have so many great memories of Evie and Chuck - especially coming to visit in the summer and spend time with Kim. Prayers of comfort to all of you and let's be sure to get together the next time I'm in Ohio. Love to all ~ Kristin (Rometti) Pike
