“ I met Faith in SC in the 80's and she got me involved with home nursing care. She knew I could do this type of work before I did and her first rule, you have to have a love of people or you do not work for me! She saw my compassionate heart and knew I could do this work. She was not only a second Mother to me, but my Spiritual Sister in our same faith and such a Best Friend. So many of my friends loved her and felt as I did about her. She was such a self sacrificing and generous person. She loved her big family of I believe 5 children and too many grandchildren for me to remember but she talked of them all so often! I am glad I got to meet and fell blessed to have known some of them. I will always remember she would end every conversation with me to send all my family her Love but, to keep most of it for Myself! She was such an inspiration to us all and we share her memories so often. I miss my Sweet Faith but look forward to seeing her as Jesus said when those asleep in death will receive a resurrection. Love Victoria 💙
