“ Dear Charlie, Ray and I were so sorry to see in the Newspaper today of the passing of your wife Faith. Being backyard neighbors, we would wave to each other, see her in the garden, or hanging clothes out to dry. On occasion we had talked about our hair and changing colors and we would laugh about it. We are just so saddened by this, but Charlie, you have a beautiful daughter and family and they will help you get through this sad time. If you should ever need anything at all, we are just a fence away!!!
Our deepest sympathy to you and your family!
