

Floyd B. Hall

November 4, 1939 - July 24, 2022

Floyd B. Hall, 82, of Mentor, formerly of Madison and Euclid, died July 24, 2022 at Enclave of Newell Creek. He was born November 4, 1939 in Speedwell, Tennessee.

Mr. Hall worked as a firefighter for the City of Euclid for 25 years. He was also a cabinetmaker by trade. His hobbies were woodworking, shooting pool and working on cars. Floyd enjoyed retirement, family and spending time with his grandson. He was the most loveable, stubborn, and orneriest man who would give you the shirt off his back if you needed it.

He was preceded in death by the love of his life, Fran Hall; and all of his siblings.

Arrangements entrusted to the Brunner Sanden Deitrick Funeral Home & Cremation Center, 8466 Mentor Ave., Mentor, OH 44060.

“ I have such wonderful memories of both your Mom & Dad. We were best friends from age 13 on. They were both my best friends and even though I moved away from Ohio, I still tried to keep in touch and certainly always thought about both of them..
