“ Dear Barb and family,

It was just a short time ago when we passed one another in the hallway. I was leaving after a visit with my mom, Theresa Markus, and you were arriving to visit Fran. Fran and my mom were meal mates for quite a long time until their needs changed. I used to enjoy going to meals and engaging in conversations with everyone at "our table". Although Fran did not say much it was apparent that she was a lovely, accomplished woman.

I particularly enjoyed when you and your son led everyone in singing Christmas carols. Although many of the residents weren't able to sing along, one could see them perking up with the familiarity of the songs.

Please accept my prayers and condolences for the loss of your dear sister.

Sincerely,

Andrea Markus Mace
