“ Dear Treva. It sure has been a rough year. First Scott then Frank. I believe he knew I loved him. He was quiet, until he got to know you, thoughtful, and so very funny. He made me laugh, he was a friend and I was proud to call him Uncle. I will miss him. Will keep you, Jason and Eva in my heart, thoughts and prayers. I love you.....becky

“ I will surely miss Frank, his wife Treva and his sons Scott and Jason were a big part of my life growing up having them as neighbors. The best neighbors in the world always ready to lend a helping hand and be there for you, Frank was such a great person in life, and will be missed by me, I can remember every time I ran into Frank, there was always a hug and smile and made you feel he missed you so. My thoughts and prayers of comfort during this time is with the family, my heart goes out to you and I am truly sorry for your loss, my love to you. Love you Treva, Scott, Eva
