

Gail (Frankel) Soltar

May 2, 1934 - June 21, 2019

Gail (Frankel) Soltar age 85 of Mentor, died Friday, June 21, 2019 at home. She was born May 2, 1934 in Euclid.

Gail was a graduate of Brush High School Class of 1952. She played the flute in the high school band.

Mrs. Soltar worked as an office manager for Dr. Scott Davidson in Michigan for 20 years before retiring to Ohio where she was born.

Gail was an active member of the Herb Society of America while in Michigan and where she learned to play the hammer dulcimer. When she retired she joined a rug hooking guild and hooked many beautiful rugs. She loved interior decorating with antiques, gardening and bird watching. Gail had an eye for beauty in everything and always had a smile for everyone. She truly loved all her cats. Her last cat, Sonny was adopted from Holy Cat Whiskers, feral cat rescue, which was her favorite charity.

Survivors include her husband of 44 years: Norman D. Soltar, children: Susan (friend, Jeff) Brochak and David (Linda) Brochak, grandchildren: Kristen (Fiancé: Brandon) Brochak, Melissa Brochak and Michael Brochak, step-son: David (Jane) Soltar and brother: Gary (Jan) Frankel, favorite niece: Pam Donati, three cats; Sparky, Timmy and Sonny, her friend: Kathy Bonnes and lifelong friends: Marie and Joe Miller. She had many nieces and nephews.

Preceding Gail in death are her first husband: Donald Brochak, parents: Marvin and Blanche Frankel, sister: Claire Kintz and loving cat: Archie.

Arrangements entrusted to Brunner Sanden Deitrick Funeral Home & Cremation Center, 8466 Mentor Avenue, Mentor, OH 44060.
