

Gary L. Fannin

April 6, 1947 - August 11, 2024

Gary L. Fannin, 77, of Ohio, passed away peacefully on August 11, 2024. He is survived by his sons, Marc G. Fannin and Jeffery S. (Jen) Fannin and brother, Steve R. (Carolyn) Fannin of Michigan and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Jesse and Lillie; a brother, Jerry Wayne Fannin; his companion, Charlene Metzger and his nephew, Douglas Fannin and many pets.

Gary served in the Air Force from 1966 to 1969, discharging as a SGT. He worked for Clark Equipment in Michigan and Euclid Hitachi in OH, retiring after 30 years in IT (Senior Software Systems Analyst). He later worked at Sam's Club. Gary loved to travel and when his sons were younger, the family traveled all over the US in a van and travel trailer, using his photography skills along the way. He loved anything to do with planes and could be found at many airshows, but also loved to take the telescope and look to the stars, moon, and any eclipses. Gary also liked many sports, baseball (Tigers and Indians), NASCAR and Indy Car, following many drivers over the years. When he wanted to reflect one would find him at a lake.

Gary was a good man, loved his sons immensely and will be missed by many for his kind tender ways.
