“ Chances are, if I know how to do something, he was the one who taught me how. How to hit a ball, ride a bike, bait a hook, you name it and he was there. I have so many great memories of running around the house on Cutts. “You Knucklehead!” That’s what we all were! Love you guys

“ every once in a while we all cross paths with a name from the past. I recall Wick from high school days in Chardon, and he was always a decent guy to the freshmen of the day. Tough loss, for sure, for family, but we all deal with it on occasion when we put our faith into action. Sincere condolences to all, especially to Jackie, who also has dealt with these situations in the past. Please know that God of Glory has blessed you all with His Spirit, and you will be comforted. God Bless you.

“ To my dearest second family,
I am sorry for your loss. Wick always treated me like a daughter, even when I broke doors he laughed at me and made me realize mistakes were a part of growing up. He made sure I was included in family cook outs, drove Mike and I to our first concert at the front row and waited in the parking lot for us, piled me into the back of the station wagon with the boys and took us to baseball games, and teased me during high school football games when I was a cheerleader. .. and many more fond memories .He will be remembered with love.

Pleas know I am sending love and thinking of you all during this difficult time.

Love, Kristin

“ What I remember and appreciated the most about Uncle Wick was how much he reminded me of his father. One of the best people I ever had in my life. My bet is that his sons, daughters and grandchildren will carry on in that tradition. That's how Uncle Wick can remain in our world, and that gives me hope.

“ Wick was a great guy. He taught me how to do plumbing, electrical work and even dig ditches as a high school kid. Lessons that last forever you never forget who taught you. He always had the time to help me and fix my mistakes. Wick even lets me use his Corvette to go to the High School Prom. I always looked up to Wick, his kindness and humor. My sincere condolences to the entire Hummel family. John Miller, Mt. Dora Florida
