

Gerald Berth

February 21, 1941 - March 16, 2019

Gerald Berth, age 78 of Willoughby formerly of Mentor, passed away March 16, 2019 at University Hospital in Cleveland. He was born February 21, 1941 in Latrobe, PA.

He was a loving, father, husband, son, and grandfather. Mr. Berth had been a Senior Master Sergeant in the U.S. Air Force, serving for 28 years before retiring. He met his wife in Korea where they married; he stayed by her side for 7 years while she was in the nursing home. He continued to volunteer at the nursing home she was in after she passed. He would help take residents on field trips and talking with spouses who just had a loved one pass.

He enjoyed spending his spare time reading, playing cards and spending time with his grandchildren.

Survivors include his daughters Angela Sirl and Jan (Mike) Higgins; granddaughters Molly, Margo, Mary and Paige; brother Franklin Berth and other loving family. He was preceded in death by his wife of 45 years Yong C. Berth and son in law Brian Sirl.

A private family service will be held at a later date.
