“ my sympathy to Greg's family, it was sad to here of his passing. I am his 5th. cousin and when I was 23 and very ill and in the Cleveland clinic for 3 months he and another cousin Dick Discipio would visit me offen,. they always made me laugh and I look forward to there visits. I'll always remember him for his kindness to me. Donna Shouler

Greg was my godfather. Cumba will be greatly missed, but the great memories will last forever. He was such a kind and sincere person . . . always asking about others before talking about himself. I thoroughly enjoyed golfing with Cumba on those few occasions. He was a great story teller, avid reader who loved sharing his books and a very inspirational man. He will continue to be a inspiration to me to be a better person.
