“ Greg and I dated while you two girls were young and my son, Kirk and I were always laughing at Greg and we had a wonderful time with him. I only know that he was not well and I am sad so sad that I missed this funeral. He went to church with us so many times and he loved God. He was exceptionally proud of you two lovely girls. I am sorry for you much love. Peggy and Kirk Lovick I also went to school and graduated with your dad. WHAT A UNUSUAL PERSON.

“ I was saddened to have learned of your father's passing. I got to know him fairly well at the bank and truly was hoping that he would bounce back from his recent ailments. He's in a better place now and although sorrow fills the hearts of many here in this life, he is finally dancing on the streets of gold without any pain. God Bless. Till we meet again.

“ I have very fond memories of Uncle Greg, maybe because I moved out of state 28 years ago...lol. Greg taught me to be a marksman, and perfected my skill in precision shooting. Those lessons served me well in my 21-year career in the Army. He was also very patient with me and spent countless hours teaching me carpentry skills and let me assist him in restoring a classic wooden boat and building out of the ordinary picnic tables. I was sad to hear of his passing and that I was unable to say good-bye, and that is unfortunate. Deepest sympathies to Katie & Michelle and the rest of the Zgonc Family.

All our love,
David, Tammy, & Stormy McClimans
