“ I remember dancing at the wedding of Greg to my cousin Missy. I don't recall ever seeing a bridegroom more enchanted by his new bride. And that never changed. What a blessing it was to have had such a steadfast, loving, admiring husband. And what a blessing it was to have had such a devoted father.

“ Dear Missy, Justin and your family- we are heartbroken to learn that Greg has passed away. Our thoughts are with you as you go through this difficult time. Greg was a wonderful husband and father. His friendship has meant so much to us for so many years. We have so many great memories with Greg around here and at our cabin. I'm so glad he came over on Monday night to hang out with us. We had a really good time. He was so happy and upbeat. We are so sorry for your loss. If there is anything we can do, just let us know.
