“ My deepest sympathy to Greg's family and to all who loved him.

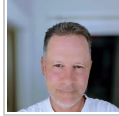

I'm glad I got to know Greg while working with him at Exel, a nice man who never complained about anything.

Rest in peace in God's loving arms Greg.

I grew up with Greg in Concord as kids and last saw him when I was in 11th grade... he was always a kind gentle soul... I just recently learned of his untimely death... so sad... I wish somebody could tell me more about him and his last days. God Bless. Charles N. Carter
