“ Hi,
I never knew Don Carroll but, I bought a used old 1966 Motors Auto Repair manual on ebay recently that had his name (I'm assuming based on the name and address written on the inside cover. I read his obituary and figured that this manual must have been his. On that note, I fixed the books binding up as it was obviously heavily used. I read that he was into cars and NASCAR. Well, I'm an old motor head myself amd own a 1966 Plymouth Satellite muscle car and bought this manual since it has lots of info in it. Just know that the book is in good hands and being used.

Sincerely

“ I am sorry to hear this. We had so many memories from when Don and Dad worked and ran around together. Rob and I were there when the garage was built. We used to get rides in Don's hot rod. We always looked at the Corvette he had in the back garage. I remember when Don and Dad and the guys all got together to build garages at your house and Rupe's. They all helped each other out and built and worked together. I am sorry for the loss to the family.I hope you all find peace and comfort soon.

“ As a young boy, summer always came with a great sense of excitement. Mainly due to the thought of Aunt Peg and Uncle Don visiting Pennington, or better yet, a road trip to their house in Ohio! The childhood memories invoke a wide range of emotions as tears of sadness and grief roll down my face. I so vividly hear the raspy sound of Uncle Don’s voice...”Lefty, grab me a beer.” as he called out to Aunt Peg while grilling his infamous hamburgers with his secret ingredient (which was none other than A-1 steak sauce). When he wasn’t at work, he was typically tinkering in the garage on one of his classic cars. He had a number of different ones over the years and joy rides became part of the typical summer agenda along with the occasional stroll to Lake Erie to fish. My fonder memories though are the countless, and highly competitive might I add, Rook games throughout my younger years. Although I didn’t get to spend much time with him in his later years, I do cherish the memories and wanted to take a moment and celebrate his 77 years of life. Cheers to you Uncle Don, your legacy will continue as will our memories of you. My sincerest condolences to Aunt Peg, Missy and Lil’ Don. We lost a classic, but my hope is he is now driving on streets of gold.

With all my love,

“ I'm sorry Peggy , Missy & Donnie & family 4 ur loss.

I've known Don most of my life as a child & was always fascinated w/ his old T bucket , he welded a bar 4 my bicycle to convert an old girls bike to boys BMX bike. Then as I grew , he took pics & watched me build the Stang & finally took him for a cruise in a low 8 second 1/4 mile drag car & he smiled from ear to ear for along time. I loved chatting w/ him & we all will miss him dearly.

“ My most vivid memories of Donnie are when he would drop Diane, Steve, Don, and me off at the movies on Sundays after church, and, then, go see you, Peggy. And, usually, he'd take us to Mutt & Jeff's for ice cream. Those were special times and I'm sure you cherish memories of those Sunday's. Love & Prayers, Cousin Pam King Lowe
