“ To Hannah's family...I am so sorry for your loss. I was Hannah's 7th grade teacher at Serra Catholic School in Rancho Santa Margarita. She was a charismatic and charming young lady and her loss is staggering. I thought you might like to read a poem that Hannah wrote while she was in 7th grade. I just happened to keep it because I thought it was lovely.

Poem of the Mountain

*It is born in the morning and turns a rustic red
The sun overlooks it like a little child It is our protector always watching over us.*

*If you listen carefully
you can hear the babbling stream
you can hear the whisper of the wing calling to you in the valleys
Then the moon comes out and sets a beautiful glow on the mountain
So the moon is the sun
the sun is the wind
the wind is in the mountains and the mountain is in my heart.*

Hannah will live on in the beauty of our memories of her. God bless you and grant you comfort in this terrible time.

“ *Sally and family,
I have no words to say that can make this better. Hannah was a delightful young woman and I enjoyed seeing her as much as I did with you and anything mothers club. Rebecca attended SM with her and remembers her fondly. Our thoughts are with you during this difficult time and hope that your family embraces you and know that you have a special angel in heaven.*

Gail Nichols - November 29, 2015 at 11:59 AM

Thank you Gail, we had a great time in Mother's Club. Such fond memories.

“ At a time such as this, few words may be all that your can bear. At Isiah 41:10 God gives comfort to the family. He states Do not be anxious, for I will fortify you, yes, I will help you, I will really hold on to you with my right hand. Take comfort in these words as Hannah strongly believed in him.
