“ What I remember most about Helen is how much she loved to laugh. At family celebrations, as we were gathered in the kitchen, she was right in the middle of things taking the time to listen and enjoy herself as she was surrounded by those she loved. Her strength and her smile will always be a part of every gathering, large or small, for as long as those of us who knew her will keep her memory in our hearts. I know I will remember Helen whenever someone tells a funny story and I hear all our laughing, and feel the love that the family offers to each of us. When we laugh with one another, it will be like she never left us, like she is with us still. Much Love from California, Jeannemarie Caris-McManus
