“ Herb was a wonderful man, caring and gently spoken. We worked together for years via telephone across the pond, finally getting to visit in 1999 just before his retirement.

My very sincere and heartfelt condolences go out to Lori and the family.

“ I only learned of his death today. I am so very sorry. I wish dad would have let us know sooner but you know how very quiet he is. My earliest childhood memory is of fishing with dad and Uncle Herbie. I can't help but think about him and Chuck and dad growing up together and dad and Herb growing old together. He was a wonderful man and I will remember Christmases and holidays and time spent out with him and my dad. I think it was the two of them that dislocated my arm when I was little :) I am so very sorry again. Keeping you all in my thoughts. Susan (Rogers) Roylance

“ Herb will be missed. I only spent a short time working with Herb but the impact he left on my life was a lasting one. I have great memories of talking about his growing up in Florida and life in the Navy. Herb was a dedicated husband and father. He was always taking about his family and how proud he was of his children. My prayers are with The family.
