“ I will always remember the fishing tournament he, my dad and I were in. It was a very windy day and we headed toward the lagoons to get out of the high waves. I jumped off the boat as dad pulled up to a pylon to grab it and tie up the boat. The pylon was way too big for me to wrap my arms around and I almost fell into the river. Bud could not stop laughing realizing I was not going to get my arms around the thing. Every time I saw him after that, he would just look at me and laugh. What a great guy!! So sorry for your loss Gerry and family.
