“ My husband Dennis and I were given the responsibility by Jackie of getting Patrick to the church on time the day Jackie and Patrick were married. As we drove to the church Patrick spotted an ice cream custard shop, and Italian as he was- he wanted to stop. I told him "no." Jackie was such a great Christian influence on Patrick. I always thank God for her being a part of our family. Elizabeth Salvatore

“ Jackie and I joined the posse at the same time. We bought Cheif, her horse, together from a friend of mine at the racetrack. Later she bought my half. She really loved him. He was a great horse. Jackie and I also crossed countried skied, golfed and walked our dogs together in numerous parks in the area. She was a great freind and will be greatly missed.

“ I always enjoyed exchanging 'war stories' from our teaching experiences and, even more, sharing our love of horses. I never got to meet Chief, but he sounded amazing, and I'm sure he was waiting for Jackie on the other side of that rainbow bridge with a nicker and a nuzzle.
